Basis for Policy

An atmosphere of mutual respect among members of the academic community is necessary for SUNY Potsdam to function as a center of academic freedom and intellectual advancement. Any violation of mutual trust and any form of intimidation or exploitation damages the institution’s educational process by undermining the essential freedoms of inquiry and expression. Students, staff, and faculty must feel personally secure for real learning to take place. As a place of work and study, SUNY Potsdam must be free of discrimination and harassment in all of its forms, including intimidation and exploitation. All students, staff, and faculty must be assured that the College will take action to prevent such misconduct, prevent its recurrence, remedy its discriminatory effects on the victim(s) and others (if appropriate), and ensure that anyone who engages in such behavior may be subject to disciplinary procedures as outlined in the appropriate collective bargaining agreement or the SUNY Potsdam Code of Conduct, “Community Rights & Responsibilities.”

Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination, which is unlawful in the workplace under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and the New York State Human Rights Law. Under Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972, sexual harassment also is prohibited in the provision of educational services and protects students and employees from sexual harassment.

Policy

Sexual harassment is a form of workplace discrimination and employee misconduct, as well as a form of discrimination in the academic setting. All employees and students have a legal right to a workplace and a campus free from sexual harassment. Employees and students can enforce this right by filing a complaint internally with the College, or with a government agency, or in court under federal or state anti-discrimination laws, as detailed in SUNY's Discrimination and Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedure. The College has implemented measures to address and prevent sexual harassment and is taking additional affirmative steps to increase awareness of, and sensitivity to, all forms of sexual harassment in order to maintain a workplace and learning environment free of its harmful effects.

Sexual harassment is prohibited and will not be tolerated at SUNY Potsdam. In accordance with applicable law, sexual harassment is generally described as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment or academic benefit or quid pro quo; or
- Submission to or rejection of the conduct is used as the basis for an employment or academic decision affecting the person rejecting or submitting to the conduct; or
- The conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an affected person's work or academic performance, or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work or learning environment.

Sexual harassment can include physical touching, verbal comments, non-verbal conduct such as leering or inappropriate written or electronic communications, or a combination of these things. Examples of sexual harassment may include, but are not limited to:

- Seeking sexual favors or a sexual relationship in return for the promise of a favorable grade or academic opportunity;
- Conditioning an employment-related action (such as hiring, promotion, salary increase, or performance appraisal) on a sexual favor or relationship; or
- Intentional and undesired physical contact; sexually explicit language or writing; lewd pictures, social media posts, emails, notes, and other forms of sexually-offensive conduct by individuals in positions of authority, co-workers or student peers, that unreasonably interferes with the ability of a person to perform their employment or academic responsibilities.
- Physical acts of a sexual nature, such as:
  - Touching, massaging, pinching, patting, kissing, hugging, grabbing, brushing against, or poking another person's body;
  - Rape, sexual battery, molestation or attempts to commit these assaults.
- Unwanted sexual advances or propositions, such as:

- Requests for sexual favors accompanied by implied or overt threats concerning a target's job performance evaluation, a promotion or other job benefits or detriments, or an educational benefit or detriment;
  - Subtle or obvious pressure for unwelcome sexual activities;
  - Repeated requests for a date with someone who is not interested.
- Touching oneself sexually in front of others or using sexually-oriented gestures, noises, remarks, jokes or comments about a person's sexuality or sexual experience, which create a hostile environment.
  - Sex stereotyping occurs when conduct or personality traits are considered inappropriate simply, because they may not conform to other people's ideas or perceptions about how individuals of a particular sex should act or look.
  - Sexual or discriminatory displays or publications, such as:
    - Displaying pictures, posters, calendars, graffiti, objects, promotional material, reading materials or other materials that are sexually demeaning or pornographic. This includes such sexual displays on computers or cell phones and sharing such displays while in the workplace or classroom.
  - Hostile actions taken against an individual because of that individual's sex, sexual orientation, self-identified or perceived sex, gender expression, gender identity, and the status of being transgender, such as:
    - Interfering with, destroying or damaging a person's workstation, tools or equipment, or otherwise interfering with the individual's ability to perform his or her employment or academic duties;
    - Sabotaging an individual's work;
    - Bullying, yelling, name-calling.

Such behavior can constitute sexual harassment regardless of the sex, gender, sexual orientation, self-identified or perceived sex, gender expression, status of being transgender, or gender identity of any of the persons involved. Sexual harassment is considered a form of employee and student misconduct which may lead to disciplinary action as outlined in the appropriate collective bargaining agreement or the SUNY Potsdam Code of Conduct, "Community Rights and Responsibilities." Further, supervisors and managers may be subject to disciplinary action for failing to report suspected sexual harassment or otherwise knowingly allowing sexual harassment to continue.

Reporting Title IX Incidents

Please refer to the Grievance Policy for Addressing Formal Complaints of Sexual Harassment Under Title IX Regulations to report a Title IX incident. You should report the conduct immediately to the Title IX Coordinator, a supervisor, a faculty/staff member, University Police, Human Resources (if accused is an employee), or another reporting resource. ## Retaliation

Retaliation against a person who files a complaint, serves as a witness, or assists or participates in any manner in this procedure, is unlawful, is strictly prohibited and may result in disciplinary action as outlined in the appropriate collective bargaining agreement or the SUNY Potsdam Code of Conduct, "Community Rights & Responsibilities." Retaliation is an adverse action taken against an individual as a result of complaining about or provides information regarding unlawful discrimination or harassment, exercising a legal right, and/or participating in a complaint investigation as a third-party witness. Adverse action includes being discharged, disciplined, discriminated against, or otherwise subject to adverse action because the individual reports an incident of sexual harassment, provides information, or otherwise assists in any investigation of a sexual harassment complaint. Participants who experience retaliation should contact the Title IX Coordinator and may file a complaint pursuant to these procedures.
